1. Introduction and Welcome
2. Discussion Topics

What works well to help your child in school?

What does a good day look like for your child? How do they seem after a good day?

What does a bad day look like for your child? What might trigger a bad day?

How does your child express when they are feeling happy/sad/relaxed/angry/worried? Do they communicate their feelings using language, including the reasons for them?

What makes your child feel good about themselves at school?

Do you adapt your language at home for your child?

What does your child tell you about their sensory experience in school?

Has your child had any direct support for emotional regulation from school?

Does your child receive any support or interventions to enable connections with peers?

Tell us about your child's experience of friendships/getting on with others in school.

What has helped your child's friendships to develop in school and at home?

3. Any questions?
4. Baseline survey.
5. Thank you and details of the next meeting.
